

22nd Annual International Water Mist Conference (IWMC) on 11th and 12th October 2023 in Copenhagen, Denmark

- Honorary Sponsorship Information –

(copyright: loving travel)

In its 22nd year, the International Water Mist Conference is going to take place in Copenhagen, Denmark. For this gathering, experts on the technology and interested parties from around the world will come together – as has been the case in previous years since 2001.

So, please save the date, come to Copenhagen and take advantage of this excellent networking opportunity to meet major researchers, manufacturers and distributors.

If you would like to become Honorary Sponsor of this event, please take a look and see what this package includes:

- Your company logo will be included in the flyer in the special section “Honorary Sponsors”
- Your company profile (between 100 and 120 words) will be included in the printed conference programme
- Your company will be part of the marketing campaign

In return, IWMA would like to ask you to make the members of your organization as well as your other contacts aware of this conference via mailings, social media and similar activities.

This sponsoring package is free of charge!

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact:
