19th International Water Mist Conference – Event Page online now

Hamburg, 15th May 2019. The conference webpage for the 19th International Water Mist Conference (IWMC) is now online! The event will take place in Berlin, Germany, on 23rd and 24th October 2019. Venue will be the Ameron Hotel Abion Spreebogen Waterside.

For easy access, a link will guide delegates from the IWMA homepage to the IWMC conference site. Attendees, speakers and sponsors may from today register for the conference.

During the early bird period – which will end on 15th July – IWMA offers reduced conference fees. There are special offers for students as well as supporting organizations.

Apart from that, participants as well as exhibitors will find all information they need to travel to the conference venue, to book accommodation and to ship their goods. There is also an overview with general information about the event available.

The IWMC programme will be available via the conference webpage from 1st July onwards.
